First Consultation Preparation Guide

Use this worksheet to organize your questions before speaking with ThaiLoveConnect or another qualified professional.

Your objective

■	Relationship introduction
■	Marriage registration guidance
■	Translation or legalization support
■	Thai spouse-visa document preparation
■	Relocation or life-planning guidance

Key facts to prepare

■	Both partners' nationalities and ages
■	Current countries of residence
■	Relationship status and length
■	Previous marriages or children
■	Desired timeline
■	Current Thai immigration status if applicable

Documents to bring or describe

■	Passport and Thai identification availability
■	Marriage or divorce documents
■	Existing translations or legalizations
■	Current visa or permission-to-stay pages
■	Bank evidence already available
■	Any authority checklist or rejection notice

Questions to ask

■	Which steps apply to our exact situation?
■	What should we verify directly with an authority?
■	Which documents are missing?
■	What can reasonably be completed first?
■	What services are included and excluded?
■	What costs, appointments and timelines should we plan for?

Safety and expectations

■	No one can guarantee marriage or visa approval
■	Never provide false relationship or financial evidence
■	Do not sign documents you do not understand
■	Keep control of original passports and personal accounts
■	Verify legal advice and official requirements independently

Important: This checklist is general planning information. Requirements vary by nationality, authority, office and case. Verify current instructions before submitting documents.
